Overview: Take five very different musicians:

- Jessica, lead vocals and bass, WOW Player, a Northerner who likes Southern Rock
- Aaron, lead guitar and backup vocals, just moved here from LA
- Cody Nilsen, blues man
- Cam, drums, hardcore music lover with plugs in his ears
- Andy, keys, track and lacrosse player, who likes just about all kinds of music

..put them together in a band for five years ...touring New England from small venues to large...living hilarious, sad, boring, and exciting moments ...creating memories for their audiences and you get a heavy modern sound with a hint of classic rock.

And the songs. The songs tell stories. The new CD has tracks that tell stories of escaping, trusting someone to always be there, hate, hoping for a friend to be OK, and of losing a love until the summertime.

When you listen, you will hear technical double-kick drumbeats, mad guitar solos, complementing keys, and clean melodic vocals with some rasp thrown in when needed.

The whole story has not yet been written. Discover them and help write the story...

Quotes:

"...very original and musical, well executed, really good vocals – best of the night, great songs, good harmonies, very tight, great drummer – very animated, great band – going places."

Judges from SchoolJam USA in January 2011 including Kevin Lyman, founder of the Vans Warped Tour, Stan Freese, talent and booking director with Disney, Steve Dobo, director of sponsorships & promotion, Rock & Roll Hall of Fame and Museum .

"The Jessica Prouty Band performed for the Marblehead Festival of Arts - Great Band, Great Sound, Great Kids! The band was buttoned up, on time and ready to rock - the audience loved them! JPB study with some of the top professional musician and producers in the region. If you are looking for a solid act of performers to enhance your festival, concert or event, I strongly recommend The Jessica Prouty Band!"

Brian Wheeler, Chairman Performing Arts, Marblehead Festival of the Arts
